HEAD OF THE ADDYS

Life wasn't easy for little Steve growing up in Pratt, Missouri. The other children in the neighborhood called him Pencil Head and would throw gravel at him for sport. So, little Steve moved inside, studied hard, and became a pretty decent, pretty-headed little fella who graduated at the head of his class.

And now he wants to head up the ADDYS. He's in great shape for the job and besides, he has a lot of good points. So please, make this little guy the power child for this year's ADDYS—wep'n you?
