Christmas Cards

It all started when my mother sent out our first family Christmas Card from Paris in 1952. It became a family tradition that I inherited. Now that the torch has been passed to me, I do one every year.

THIS CHRISTMAS WE'RE PERFORMING OUR FAVORITE CAROLS.

1989

LIVE THE GLAMOROUS LIFE... What more could anyone wish for? A full length Backstage fur coat! A diamond necklace! A pair of designer pumps! Expensive shoes. And a champagne chiller! (Dan Tongue's '80 due with Patrick Swayze.) A mother of two, Mrs. Swayze, is the star of the show. Call 1-800-227-2222 for just $336,583. (In, tips, and Mr. Swayze's tuxedo rental not included.)

THE ROAD TO RICK... Knock, knock, paddy whack, give your dog a 100,000 year old Parasuraksha bone! Dog up to the latest Xanadu! The dog's been living there since he was a pup... and any pampered pooh dig deep holes in his backyard. Gourmet dog food is healthful for even the fittest of doggies, and can be fetched for only $497,269.

GET A LEG UP ON YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD... Let your pet go in style with this 14 count, solid gold, life-size fire hydrant. He'll be the envy of the canine crowd as well as the neighborhood. Dress him up for the holiday of your neighborhood, replacing those pink flamingos and decorating your yard with this touch of class—literally only $917,782.

FETCH THIS... Forget sending your favorite pet out into the yard as a little treat for the whole family to share. Give him his own! It just the thing for your doggo's birthday or Christmas. And it's not just an entire staff of 1,462 writers, photographers, columnists and printers with a credentialed staff of approximately 400,000 sq. ft., a large lot of real estate, and a budget of $10 million per year, your pooch can explore himself on the editorial page each and every day for just $230,700,321.

WHEN YOU WISH UPON A STAR... Give your little tykes just what they're wishing for this Christmas. Baby Herman, a feature-length cartoon character, will be the star of a full week filming with the most eligible babe in Hollywood. They'll be shooting to and from the set of the new Disney's Star Wars film premiering at the trendiest new restaurants in L.A.—Chez Babar and Roy's. Baby Herman's got the look. All this can be your child's for the little baby sum of $447,988.

A CHRISTMAS STORY BOARD
From Humphreys Ink.

Once upon a time, a long long time ago... a tradition started at Christmas. One that still continues today. It is a story about giving... and the origin of one of the most profound thoughts of today. It was the night before Christmas. . . .

I guess I shouldn't have.

Semmes, Merry Christmas darling. wicked stepmother

Oh thanks... NOT ! Merry Christmas Selden!

Tennison... look at what I got for your Christmas present.

Heere ! Colonel Mustard...

Tis better to give... than to receive.

THE HUMPHREYS FAMILY SAVES CHRISTMAS. Posts bail to free Santa.

At midnight, the Rossville Police Department received a call from a Mr. Grinch who reported seeing suspicious activities taking place at 1185 Knox Road in Rossville. It was the home of Janet & Anderson Humphreys. The police soon apprehended an older man, hiding in the chimney. He indicated his name was Kris Kringle and was immediately arrested and charged with multiple offenses and placed in the Rossville jail.

According to Mr. Humphreys, "We weren't expecting Santa! We thought we were on his naughty list." Mr. Humphreys accompanied by his entire family immediately went to the Rossville jail and posted bail for Mr. Kringle. Shortly after, Mr. Kringle slipped away into the night.
